

Making a testing account

Testing candidates can register for an account by visiting the website: <https://home.pearsonvue.com/>

Type in the name of the certification provider in the “Ready, set, test >” field and select it when it pops up. We will use CompTIA in this example.

⚠️ COVID-related testing information:

Testing candidates: Most Pearson Professional Centers (PPCs) are open for exam centers (PVTTC and PVTTC Selects) with the ability to operate, though some may be at discretion or in response to government mandates.

Visit our COVID-19 information page for the latest information regarding exam rec policies. For information on rescheduling, refunds, and more, please review our E

CompTIA Certification Testing

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

CompTIA has migrated to single sign-on (SSO) to unify your CompTIA accounts and products under one login. All candidate records will now be accessible through the CompTIA sign on page. Clicking on the "Login" button will take you from Pearson VUE to the new site where your registration process will now begin.

COMPTIA IS OFFERING OUR CANDIDATES ONLINE CERTIFICATION TESTING

Online testing is ideal because candidates can:

- Test anywhere – especially from the security and privacy of their own home.
